

Elements of a business plan flow chart

The elements of a business plan are necessary to provide a business owner with the information necessary to plan, implement, and execute business startup and growth. These elements are interconnected, cyclical, and are fundamental to creating a self-sustaining independent business model.

